Girls' Tech Day 2020

Amazon Web Services (AWS) is hosting a free virtual opportunity called Girls' Tech Day for female students to explore Machine Learning, Artificial Intelligence, Coding, Virtual Reality, Robotics, and more. The virtual event is free and will motivate girls and young women, ages 8-24, to develop personal interests in technology. The activities are designed to be self-paced, and you can revisit them as many times as you like. Participants can join the event any time between November 14 – 28, 2020. A parent or guardian must register participants under 18.

National Honor Society Application Process (HS Juniors and Seniors)

Juniors and Seniors with a GPA of 3.5 or higher received an email invitation to the National Honor Society (NHS) Interest Meeting. If your student is interested in being considered for membership in the NHS, we encourage him/her to attend the Interest Meeting Tuesday, October 13, 2020 at 3:15 p.m. in Schoology. If your Junior or Senior has a 3.5 GPA, and he/she did NOT receive the email, please contact Mr. Fernandez at EAFernandez@fcps.edu.

AP Virtual Information Night

On Thursday, October 15th at 7pm Hayfield High School will hold it's annual, first ever, digital AP Information Night. This information meeting is intended for families that have students enrolled in AP classes, families that are looking to learn more about the AP program and rising high school students that would like to learn more about the AP program.

We will cover AP exams and test fees, lessons learned from last year, AP classes offered at Hayfield, the benefits of taking AP classes, managing advanced academic classes, AP vs IB and the AP Capstone Program.

Since we are online, space is limited, so please fill in THIS FORM to reserve a spot. You will receive a calendar invite with the link to the session as confirmation. If you have any additional questions, you can reach Julie Riley at jsriley@fcps.edu.

2020 FCPS Virtual College Week (HS)

This year, FCPS will host a Virtual College Week from Monday, October 19 to Friday, October 23, 2020. This event will feature two live virtual sessions each evening starting at 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. During these sessions, FCPS students and families will be provided an opportunity to meet virtually with subject-matter experts and ask questions about college admissions, standardized testing, financial aid, and postsecondary planning. Students and their families must register here to attend any of the sessions. Visit the FCPS Virtual College Week web page for more details.
